

I am totally opposed to imposing a continuing "Bell" Monopoly on phone based DSL. Keep the internet alive by FORCING these GREEDY MONOPOLISTS to share all lines with competitors. They didn't pay for the phone system, we did with all the rates we have been forced to pay over the years. Real competition is the only thing keeping these hungry crocodiles from swallowing up everything and everybody.